

W. L. G. to Benj. Lundy, Jan'y, 1831. 2

"We shall fare on bread and water, a long time before we strike our flag. Whether we sink or swim, in this new enterprise, we shall remain the unyielding advocates of the poor slave."

G. U. E. Feby. 1831, p. 162.

Journal of Universal Emancipation

